

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

---

OFFICE OF THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR

This is only the second annual Air Force Intelligence Dining Out.

Last year retired LTG Tighe gave a history of Air Force intelligence back to Korea through Vietnam and up to the present -- lessons learned.
But unfortunately it was pretty dry -- lots of data but was rather tedious (even for the Air Force officers) let alone their spouses.

So it sounds like you can speak to almost anything. You could probably tell some interesting
"President" stories -- tying it altogether with how the intelligence process works.

Honorable Robert Gates
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr Gates

I would like to invite you to be the honored guest speaker at our annual Dining Out on the 12th of September 1986. I wish to extend a special invitation to your wife, Becky, to join us on the occasion. The Dining Out will be held at the Fort Myer Officers' Club beginning with a social hour at 7:00; dinner is at 8:00 with entertainment and dancing to follow.

This is a special occasion bringing together many past and present members of the Air Force Intelligence Community to enjoy some esprit de corps and camaraderie. The event is further enhanced by the presence of spouses, and is not nearly as structured as a Dining In.

Major Gary Stock (AF/INX, the Pentagon, 695-4562) will handle the planning for your attendance including transportation and assistance with your remarks if you desire. Major Stock is available to help with arrangements or with any questions you may have concerning the Dining Out.

As the new Director of Intelligence Plans and Systems, I look forward to meeting you.

Sincerely

PHILLIP E. THOMPSON, Colonel, USAF
Director, Intelligence Plans & Systems
